

Piti Disyatat

Head, Forecasting and Macro Surveillance Division
Bank of Thailand

Piti Disyatat is Head of Forecasting and Macro Surveillance Division in the Monetary Policy Group at the Bank of Thailand. He has recently returned from serving two years at the Bank for International Settlements. Before joining the Bank of Thailand in 2001, he worked as an economist at the International Monetary Fund.

Dr. Disyatat's research interests are in monetary economics and international finance. His most recent publications include "Unconventional Monetary Policies: An Appraisal," joint with Claudio Borio, and "Inflation Targeting, Asset Prices, and Financial Imbalances: Contextualizing the Debate". He holds a Ph.D. from Princeton University and a Bachelor of Economics (First Class Honours) from the Australian National University.