

Bandid Nijathaworn
Deputy Governor (Monetary Stability)
Bank of Thailand

Bandid Nijathaworn is Deputy Governor for Monetary Stability, with responsibilities for monetary policy, financial markets operation, reserve management, economic research, and the international side of the Bank of Thailand. He also serves as a member of the Bank of Thailand's Court of Directors, the Financial Policy Committee, and the Monetary Policy Committee. Prior to his current position, he spent a couple of years as Deputy Governor in charge of financial stability, financial policy and banking supervision. Before joining the Bank, he was an economist at the International Monetary Fund and an assistant professor in Economics at Thammasat University, Bangkok, Thailand.

Dr. Nijathaworn holds a Ph.D. and a Master degree from La Trobe University, Australia. He earned a B.A. (Hons.) from the University of Essex, Colchester, England. In 2001, he attended the Advanced Management Program at Harvard University, USA.