

Piti Disyatat

Director, Research Department
Bank of Thailand

Piti Disyatat is Director of Economic Research in the Monetary Policy Group at the Bank of Thailand. Prior to this, he worked in various areas of the Bank including forecasting and modeling, financial risk management, foreign reserve management and monetary operations. From 2007–2010 he served as Senior Economist in the Monetary and Economic Department at the Bank for International Settlements. He has also previously worked as an Economist at the International Monetary Fund and has served as Adjunct Faculty in the Economics Department at Chulalongkorn University and Thammasat University in Thailand. His research interests are in monetary economics, banking and international finance. He holds a PhD from Princeton University and a Bachelor of Economics with first class honours from the Australian National University.