Statements by the Prime Minister

On Sunday 29 June 1997, the Prime Minister of Thailand confirms that

1. The authorities will not suspend any more finance and securities companies apart from the 16 already suspended.

2. The Government guarantees that all depositors and creditors, domestic and foreign, of all finance and securities companies other than those suspended will be protected.

3. On Monday 30 June 1997, the Minister of Finance and the Governor of the Bank of Thailand will make public statements giving details of additional measures to ensure adequate liquidity and introduce discipline in interest rate pricing for the whole financial system. These measures will then be submitted to the Cabinet for approval on Tuesday 1 July 1997.
