Notification of the Bank of Thailand

No. SorKorChor. 1/2567

Re: Fee rates for licensing and registration of designated payment system business and designated payment service business.

1. Rationale for the Notification

Whereas the Bank of Thailand has issued regulations, methods, and conditions to apply for a license to operate a designated payment system business, and issued regulations, methods, and conditions to apply for a license and registration to operate a designated payment service business according to the Payment Systems Act B.E. 2560 (2017), for the benefit of supervising the operation of payment systems and payment services to be secure, efficient, and appropriately protect service users, the Bank of Thailand deems it appropriate to establish the fee rates for applying for a license to operate such businesses at zero Baht. However, the Bank of Thailand may consider setting a different fee rate as appropriate to reflect the importance, complexity, and risk of each type of business to the economic system, along with effectively supervise business operators in line with the context of the development of Thailand's payment systems.

2. Statutory power

By virtue of the provisions in Section 13 and Section 17 of the Payment System Act B.E. 2560 (2017), the Bank of Thailand hereby establishes the fee rates for licensing and registration of designated payment system business and designated payment service business as provided in this Notification.

3. Scope of enforcement

This Notification shall apply to those who wish to operate a designated payment system business and those who wish to operate a designated payment service business, in accordance with the Payment Systems Act.

4. Content

The fee rates for licensing and registration for business operations under the Payment Systems Act are as follows:

(1) Designated payment system business: 0 Baht

(2) Designated payment service business: 0 Baht

5. Enforcement date

This Notification is enforceable as from the day following the date of its publication in the Government Gazette.

Announced on 12 November 2024
